The information that you provide will be held in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998 and from 25 May 2018 the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). Your personal data will be collected and processed only for the purpose of allowing the Hull Health Trials Unit, University of Hull (HHTU) to communicate with you regarding your project.

Summary data you provide about your project may be used for the purposes of internal reporting on HHTU activity.

The University will not disclose your personal data to any external third party other than where you have given us permission to do so, unless we are required to do so by law.

The personal data that you provide the University of Hull will be held by the University of Hull in compliance with our Retention Schedule.

Under the General Data Protection Regulation, the University must establish a legal basis for processing your personal data and communicate this to you. The legal basis for processing your personal data is:

Consent: the individual has given clear consent for you to process their personal data for a specific purpose.

Where your data is stored

Your personal data will be processed and stored by a third-party processor, Formstack.com on behalf of the University of Hull. Formstack uses 256bit SSL encrypting data traffic between your computer and their server. Additionally data on their servers is encrypted at rest. Data will be retained on Formstack's server for one month before being permanently deleted. Further details are available at: <https://www.formstack.com/features/security>

Additionally data you provide will be transmitted to the HHTU via an email to the HHTU enquiries email address at: HHTUenquiries@hyms.ac.uk. Hull York Medical School (HYMS) email is provided by Microsoft under their Office365 license. Data is stored in UK data centres. Microsoft as data processor contractually agree to not use personal data for advertising or data mining purposes. Further details on Microsoft Office 365 data security and GDPR compliance is available here:
